CHRIST IN HADES: A Poem.

By William W. Lord. 1 vol. 12mo., bound, 75 cents.

This admirable poem is founded upon the belief that the sonl of the Saviour, after his Crueifixion, passed to the abode of the Spirit of Men and thence came forth triumphant. It possesses surpassing grandeur and majesty of thought, with much force and beauty of language, and harmony of versification.

TREATISE ON MARINE AND NAVAL ARCHITECTURE:

Or, Theory and Practice Blended in Ship Suilding.

By John W. Griffiths, Marine and Naval Architect. Illustrated with more than fifty Engravings. 1 vol. 4to. Price $10.

By John W. Griffiths, Marine and Naval Architect. Illustrated with more than fifty Engravings. I vol. 4to. Price $10.

This work is designed to form the connecting link between Science and Practice, with a view to the elementary instruction of those who have not previously studied the principles of science in modeling and building ships. But while it is designed as the novitate's guide, it will be found to contain much information adapted to all branches of maritime enterprise; not only the elementary principles, but all the departments of the science, are distinctly explained and illustrated by plaines and diagrams. The subject of masting and sparring of vessels is fully explained in its proper department.

Popularity has not been sought at the expense of science, nor brevity by the sacrifice of useful information and approprise illustrations.

To those who dealer to possess a work on the theory and practice of ship-building it is not too much to say, that an equal amount of information has never been offered to the mechanical word upon this subject at so small a price.

will make 6 to 8 Plasters, and any child can spread them.

MOREHEAD'S MAGNETIC PLASTER has been usued during the past Winter, in the private practice of some of the first physicians of the City of New-York, and its effects have so much surpassed expectation, that the proprietor has been urged to immediately introduce it to the public in a popular form, and at the lowest possible price. A sense of duty leads him to adopt this conract; and to show the feeling which exists, the following letter is published. The name was confidential, but it is from one of the oldest and most respected of our physician; "New-York, Jan. 21, 1851, and C. Addressed M. D.

most respected of our physicians.

"D. C. Morenead, M. D.

"My Dear Sir: I have distributed a mong my friends and patients all the Magnetic Plaster you sent me last November; and as you request my opinion of its merits, I take pleasure in saying, that it has fully equalised your promises. Those who have used it are anxious to know where to get a future supply when wanted, as I have tool them I have no more. I know not your intentions regarding it, but i would suggest that it be introduced in some popular form to the public, and placed at a low price, so that all can obtain it. The poor, who are most listle to exposure and sickness, thave not the means to buy expensive remesters, and sickness, that we have not been forgotten should you conclude to give the public the benefit of your beautiful discovery of the 'Magnetic Plaster.'

"I am truly yours."

Many other certificates could be given, but the proprietor intends dispensing with all these, being determined that the Magnetic Plaster shall make its own way without any testimonlals, and stand or fall, solely on its own merits.

Put up in air-tight tin boxes, sufficient to spread 6 to 8 Plasters, and warranted to keep pure and fresh tor years in any climate.
